To make travelling an experience is the task that we, in the establishments of Zech Hotel Holding, have set ourselves. Whether for business or for pleasure, an overnight stay far from home should offer the hotel guest every imaginable comfort and service. If, in addition to this, the guest experiences new impressions and stimuli, his or her stay will become an unforgettable memory. Conferences, congresses, business trips, holidays or tourism - from the modern private hotel to the design-oriented conference hotel: Zech Hotel Holding facilities, with some 2,000 beds, have the fitting setting for every target group.

Individual Hospitality

Under the trade name ATLANTIC, a hotel idea has developed into a hotel cooperation, which stands for personal and individual hospitality and satisfies the spirit of the age. The ATLANTIC hotels are characterized by their attractive locations, their striking architecture and their exclusive interior design. The ATLANTIC Hotel cooperation, with its five four-star facilities here, is the biggest private hotel operator in the state of Bremen, with 589 room units and conference capacity for up to 1,000 persons.

Hotel Operations and Consulting

Zech Hotels GmbH shows responsibility for the hotels in western, southern and eastern Germany. Some of these are run in the context of franchise agreements as Holiday Inn Hotels and one as an ATLANTIC Hotel. What these hotel operating companies have in common is the professionalism of a hotel operator with the expertise of hotel consultants, experienced in constructing their own new hotels.
